

Leighton wins contract

Leighton's John Holland unit won a $260 million contract to form a joint venture between Vale and Aquila Resources to operate their Isaac Plains Coalmine in Central Queensland for 30 months. John Holland is targeted to move approximately 26 million cubic metres of waste and 3.6 million tonnes of coal.

Jeffrey Hutton